Come Paint with me From Your Own Studio!

Tuesdays: January 21 - March 11, 2025, 9-11am or 6:30-8:30 pm
For 8 weeks, we will meet online to discuss your art.

This is a unique opportunity to receive personal art instruction and get all of your art questions answered on a weekly basis.

You will email me images of your artwork and photo references, if you have them, along with any questions about your painting or process. I will then answer them and discuss with the group your concerns to obtain even more input from them. You can paint during these 2 hours or simply be with the group to get inspired and garner new ideas for your art.

Art takes practice.

Working with others in a supportive environment is powerful! You will not only learn a great deal and make new friends, but you will feel encouraged to keep painting and growing.

Being held accountable to show up is also a great benefit. By scheduling at least 2 hours a week of paint time with instruction will help your creative growth.
